FREDDIE WEEKS KNOCKS OUT YOUNG JOE GANS

GOLDFIELD WATER RATES REDUCED

A material reduction in water rates will probably soon be announced by the Consolidated Water company.

The reduction will be in order to secure the cooperation of as many consumers of the district as possible, and will place the necessity within the means of practically everyone. The company takes the position that it would rather serve 100 than 50 patrons, if the revenue in each case be the same.

The maximum domestic rate at this time is three-quarters of a cent per gallon, with a 10 per cent discount if paid by the tenth. This is at the rate of $6.75 per 1000 gallons. The company intends to increase the rate of discount to about thirty-three and one-third per cent, making the charge only $5 per 1000 gallons, if the service be paid for by the tenth of the month. The company is at this time supplying about 320,000 gallons of water to consumers each day.

"We wish to get more consumers," said C. G. Patrick, manager of the company, last evening, "and are willing to do our part to that end. The new rates will go into effect the first of November, providing we secure sufficient increase in business, and judging by the present, there is absolutely no doubt along that line. We wish to have our supply in as many homes of Goldfield as is possible and contemplate a reduction to $5 per 1000 gallons. We hope this policy will be successful."

NEW EQUIPMENT IMPROVES MINT

THREE FURNACES INSTALLED WILL INCREASE CAPACITY AT CARSON OFFICE

CARSON, Sept. 7.—With the addition of three new furnaces to the equipment of the mint at Carson City it is expected that four times as much work will be turned out by Superintendent Colcord. Where it required nearly forty minutes to "make a melt" under the system formerly in use at the institution, seven minutes will be all the new apparatus will need.

A three-horse power dynamo furnishes power to a high pressure blower in the new furnaces, and the whole outfit is of the government's most improved type.

Some time ago Superintendent Colcord found it necessary to turn away a ton of bullion because the antiquated furnaces then in the building could not handle the stuff. With the present system installed there will scarcely be a limit to the amount the mint will be able to treat.

According to the Carson officials, the furnaces are the first of a number of improvements to be made.

PLUNGED INTO TANK OF CYANIDE

A. H. Harmes, a workman at the Montgomery-Shoshone mine, probably owes his life to the fact that he had sufficient presence of mind to keep his mouth shut in a time of imminent danger. Tuesday, while working over the cyanide tanks, he lost his footing and fell into one of the large vats of poisonous fluid—so deadly poison that it takes but a few drops in a man's stomach to cause almost instant death. He was completely submerged in the fluid, but kept his eyes, nose and mouth tightly closed until his fellow workmen who had witnessed his fall, came to his rescue and hauled him out of his dangerous bath. Antidotes were promptly administered to counteract the effect of any of the poison which might have entered his system, and his poison saturated clothing quickly removed. No bad results were experienced, and Mr. Harmes is as good as new, —Rhyolite Herald.
